Civil War Veterans.

As the veterans of the civil war passed the grand stands, some as erect and soldierly stooped and bent, carrying the tattered battle flags, thousands in the grand stands rose to their feet and stood with heads high as the column passed.

General Frederick Funston commanded the division of the army, composed of 2500 troops, infantry, artillery and cavalry from the Presidio.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The great naval, military and civic parade, constituting the chief feature of today's celebration of the arrival of the Atlantic fleet, started from the foot of Market street on its long march through the leading business sections of the city shortly after 9 o'clock this morning. There were about 15,000 men in line, 5500 being marines and sailors from the vessels in the bay, a large force of regular troops from the Presidio, the marine corps, naval militia, National Guard of California, veterans of the Rebellion and Spanish war, California Pioneers and various semi-military organizations and officials and prominent citizens in carriages made up the rest of the procession.

Admiral Evans With Secretary Metcalf

Secretary of the Navy Metcalf, Governor Gillett of California and staff, Mayor Taylor of San Francisco and Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans and staff rode in carriages in the first division, which was headed by the grand marshal, Brigadier General J. A. Koster, National Guard of California, and staff. The division was composed of regular troops commanded by Brigadier General Frederick Funston, including detachment from the Infantry cavalry, signal corps and United States engineers.

Cadets Escorted ‘Fighting Bob’

The Salt Lake Battalion of High School Cadets acted as a special escort to Rear Admiral Evans, whose carriage was followed by others containing the commanding officers of the fleet and foreign consuls.

Hundreds of thousands of people lined the route of the parade and when the people caught sight of Rear Admiral Evans cheering and waving of flags and handkerchiefs began and did not cease.

“We are confident that we will control the state convention.”

FAMOUS CARRIAGE TO BE IN LINE

For the parade on Saturday through the courtesy of Frank W. Smith, Grand Marshal H. N. Gard has been tendered the use of the landau which conveyed President McKinley at the time of his visit here, and was decorated at the time of McKinley's assassination. The offer was gratefully accepted by Mr. Gard.

The landau will contain Secretary Metcalf, the ranking officer of the fleet, probably Admiral Dayton, Governor Gillett and Miss M. M. Moore.

The same team of horses, the same driver and the same footman who carried McKinley and Roosevelt, will carry the distinguished party Saturday.

REGULAR REPUBLICANS CONTROL AT SANTA ANA

SANTA ANA, May 7.—The Republican county convention was called today and the country delegations surprised the city and anti-machine factions. While the delegations were thought to be anti-machine, the others proved to be the opposite. The regulars regulars controlled the convention, electing R. Y. Williams temporary chairman. The organization had 39% to 70% votes.

PATTERSON RANCH HAS BEEN INCORPORATED

The Patterson Ranch Company filed articles of incorporation today at the county clerk's office. The capital stock is one million dollars, divided into 10,000 shares. The directors are Dudley Kinsell, C. C. Hamilton and S. E. Smyth of this city. The corporation is to engage in mercantile, commercial and agricultural pursuits in this State. The principal place of business will be this city.

CHARGE OF BURGLARY DISMISSED BY COURT

The charge of burglary against Robert Coventry was dismissed today by Superior Judge Weller, upon the recommendation of Deputy District Attorney Carey. Carey had two trials and in each case the jury disagreed. For this reason the district attorney's office asked that the matter be dismissed. Coventry was charged with entering the Town and Gown Club quarters while a dance was in progress, and with having stolen several hats and wraps belonging to the guests.

MRS. MARTIN WANTS DOORS THROWN OPEN ‘COMELY WIDOW’ WAS THE INDUCEMENT

Exasperated by Baby John’s Testimony

Mrs. Isabella Martin was in a peevish state of mind when she arrived in the police court this morning for a continuance of her preliminary examination on a charge of dynamiting the home of Superior Judge Ogden. She was unusually sullen and silent for a time, but of a sudden she broke out in a tirade against the action of her attorney in having the court order the case to be heard behind closed doors.

“With this showing of strength I think there is no doubt but we will be enabled to gather in enough of the upper county delegates to make our control absolute. Throughout the state there are many delegates, who, while they may be classified with the regular organization, are nevertheless, in my opinion, in full accord with the principals and purposes of the league, and no doubt many of them will flock to our standard.”

“We are confident that we will control the state convention.”

“It is true that the regular Republican organization claims forty-eight out of 103 delegates in Los Angeles County, but they are laying claim to nineteen contested delegates.”

JAPAN DID NOT BANISH

Korean Emperor Instead Desired to Visit Crown Prince, an Agricultural Student, at Tokio.

TOKIO, May 7.—Not even a shadow of truth exists for the rumor of the banishment of the Korean Emperor by Japan, high officials of the Foreign Office simply ridiculing its absurdity. The former Emperor, on the earnest advice of Prince Ito, once resolved to come to Tokio to see how the Crown Prince, who is here prosecuting his studies, was progressing, but afterward changed his mind. Korean Minister of Agriculture Fong, who came to Tokio with the Crown Prince, said on the eve of his departure for home that he would try his utmost to persuade the ex-Emperor to visit Tokio, in order to remove whatever suspicion might still exist in his mind regarding Japan's attitude toward Korea.

Prince Ito once said to the Associated Press that he respected Korean sovereignty and there has been no occasion whatever since then to change his policy.

The Fochi, which has similar news from Africa regarding the banishment of the Emperor, ridicules the magnitude of its fabric and regrets the circulation of such a report which, it says, is evidently intended to misrepresent the attitude of Japan toward Korea.

CONDUCTOR HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Unknown Person Attempts to Murder an Employee of the United Railroads.

(Special to The Tribune.) SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—While Henry Garibaldi of 211 Dolores street, a conductor employed by the United Railroads, was walking on Mission street between Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth at 10 o'clock last evening, someone took a shot at him, the bullet whizzing past his ear.

The report of the revolver attracted the attention of Policeman Meehan, who, after an investigation of the affair, arrested Paul Selmi, who had a loaded revolver on his person. Garibaldi, however, failed to recognize Selmi, and the officer accordingly locked up his prisoner only on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Garibaldi knew of no one who could wish him harm and is much mystified over the firing of the shot.

Chief of Police Volmer says that he does not believe that the two men under arrest were agents of any society, but rather utilized the dread of the traditional Black Hand or Mafia society to frighten Campbell, son of a policeman, into thinking that the warning would be followed by the assassination of his family. "At the time Campanelli got the first so-called Black Hand letter I was inclined to think some of his neighbors were playing a trick on him," said Volmer. "We took measures to head off any danger to him in case the writers of the missive meant business. When this second letter was given to me yesterday I was satisfied that this was no joking matter. After a conference with Campanelli we arranged that he should

WILSON TO SHOW IN POPULAR PLAY

"When Knights Were Bold" Ran Five Months on Great White Way.

For the first time in several seasons Francis Wilson, the famed American comedian, is making an extended Western trip. This season Wilson is presenting a deliciously funny farcical play called "When Knights Were Bold," which Charles Frohman secured for him in England, where it is now playing in its second year, and which earlier in the season was seen on Broadway, New York, for five consecutive months. Wilson, with an excellent supporting company, comes to the Macdonough Theater next Friday and Wednesday evenings.

Presents "My Wife."

One of the most interesting engagements of the season, is that of John Drew, who will appear at the Macdonough May 21, 22 and 23 in "My Wife," a play whose reputation was spread over the country in a very short time. Drew, as the make-believe husband in this brilliant comedy certainly delights the people who see him. His acting is of the happiest and cleverest order; it is as sparkling as the play itself, and the favorite acting being is a part that easily suits him there is good reason for the enjoyment the theater-goers find in his performances.

Lew Dockstader Coming.

The yearly coming of Lew Dockstader and his great minstrels always promises a treat in the field over which Dockstader reigns supreme. This year the minstrel king promises an entirely new program, new scenic effects and a great gathering of singers with which he has surrounded himself, embracing Reese Prosser, Will Oakland, Geo. F. Weller, W. H. Thompson, James Bradley, Herbert Williamson, Master Keegan, Will H. Lee, and about twenty others. The choice groups are especially written for this year's offering, and every number is absolutely owned and copyrighted for Dockstader's minstrels. The minstrels will be seen at the Macdonough Theater May 14, 15 and 16.

HEAD OF INTERNATIONAL STEAM ENGINEERS HERE

Matt Comerford, President of Powerful Union, Pays Visit to Oakland Local.

Matt Comerford, general president of the International Union of Steam Engineers, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived in Oakland yesterday on his national tour of inspection.

He is the guest of T. J. Roberts, of this city, who is vice-president of the International organization.

Mr. Comerford, on his present trip has already inspected all of the locals in Minnesota, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

After paying an official visit to Oakland and San Francisco locals, Comerford will go to Los Angeles, thence through Texas, Louisiana and other southern States.

Regarding existing business conditions, as reflected in the trade of steam engines, Comerford said that they are improving rapidly throughout the northwest, with the exception of Seattle, where the building trades have been locked out.

Comerford said, however, that there are indications of an early adjustment of the labor troubles in Seattle.

WANTS U. S. SENATORS ELECTED BY PEOPLE

GUTHRIE, Oklahoma, May 7.—Throughout the State of Oklahoma today a legal holiday is being observed. Governor Charles N. WANTS EXHIBITS IN ALASKA-YUKON FAIR

Early applications for space must be made by exhibitors from Alameda county at the State Fair, to be held in Sacramento in August, according to a letter of James A. Flitcher, secretary of the State Agricultural Society, read at the Merchants' Exchange meeting last night. Flitcher advocated the shipment of exhibitions from this county to the Alaska-Yukon exhibition, to be held in Seattle.

OAKLAND'S FLEET COMMITTEE, GEORGE W. REED CHAIRMAN, ABOARD THE STEAMER SAN JOSE, VIEWING THE ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICAN ARMADA IN SAN FRANCISCO BAY.

OAKLAND'S COMMITTEE GIVES CORDIAL WELCOME

Mayor Mott's Address to Admiral Evans

Oakland's Fleet Reception Committee, accompanied by about 400 guests, reviewed the arrival of the fleet yesterday from the decks of the ferry steamer San Jose, which was offered to the committee with the compliments of the Key Route Company. Mayor Mott headed the delegation and a most jolly party it proved to be, all enjoying the occasion in the most hearty fashion. The San Jose left the Key Route pier at 11 o'clock and made a quick trip to a point just inside the heads, where a halt was made until the Atlantic fleet under Admiral Evans' command had passed into the harbor. The next position taken up by the San Jose was at the lower end of Alcatraz Island, where Admiral Dayton's squadron joined the fleet. As the warships wheeled into their positions the Oaklanders were taken down the entire line of the fleet. After the anchorage had Melvin for Delegate at Large.

We assume that Judge Henry A. Melvin will have the united support of the Alameda county delegation for delegate-at-large to the Republican National Convention. Not only should his own county support him solidly, but he should have all the delegates from the other counties embraced in the Third Congressional district as well, since he is the only announced candidate for delegate-at-large in the district.

Judge Melvin is one of the ablest and most popular of the younger generation of California Republicans. He is a native of Alameda county, a graduate of the State University, and a Republican who has never failed to respond to the party's call and whose loyalty to its principles and nominees is without taint. For twenty years he has been on the firing line of every political battle, leading and cheering on the fight for Republican success. On the bench he has won the confidence and esteem of the bar of the State, while in private life his character is above reproach. In short, he is an able, clean, loyal Republican of the best type.

Judge Melvin is an ardent supporter of Secretary Taft, and his candidacy for delegate-at-large is in the interest of that statesman. He announced his candidacy prior to the primary election, and became a candidate for delegate to the State convention with the avowed purpose of being elected a delegate to the National Convention. He received the endorsement of his district—the Fifty-first—by an overwhelming majority. He has many warm supporters throughout the State and certainly deserves the honor he seeks. He is a favorite and worthy son of Alameda, and hence every delegate from this county should favor his candidacy.

The Spreckels organ continues to vociferate that the Lincoln-Roosevelt League has swept the primaries and will control the Republican convention. It is difficult to discern what it expects to gain by this absurd iteration of a palpable untruth. The proof of the pudding will be in chewing the string, and when the convention meets it will be demonstrated that the league will have little more than one-third of the delegates. The regular organization will control at least six out of the eight Congressional districts, and may possibly control every district in the State. However, the Call has so long pursued the fatuous policy of trying to make things so by yelling they are so that it seems incapable of stating plain facts or acknowledging an accomplished result. Hence it persists in claiming everything in sight after the results of the poll prove that its faction has been badly beaten.

A Wise Precaution Vindicated.

The wisdom of Congress in passing the bill giving the Secretary of Commerce and Labor police control of all naval pageants in the navigable waters of the United States was amply vindicated yesterday. As a result of the perfect arrangements made and carried out by the government officials the great naval review on the bay passed off without a hitch or accident of any kind. Although the bay was thronged by a myriad of all kinds of craft nearly all filled with pleasure-seekers there was not a single collision nor a serious threat of one. All the regulations adopted for the occasion were promptly and cheerfully obeyed, and hence everybody aboard the various pleasure craft had abundant opportunity to witness the maneuvers of the great Armada.

Congress passed the bill a short time ago at the suggestion of the administration, the measure being offered by Congressman Knowland with the special object of preventing accidents during the spectacular reviews planned in the various Pacific Coast harbors that the fleet was scheduled to visit. It was a precaution prompted by wise forethought. It was a precaution that was commended by all who witnessed the splendid marine pageant yesterday.

And while the results vindicated the wisdom of giving the government officials police control of such affairs, the Federal authorities of the port of San Francisco cannot be too highly commended for the manner in which they performed their duty. They employed the authority with which they were clothed with wisdom and consideration, and hence an event forever to be glorious in the history of California was not marred by any miscarriage or distressing occurrence.

Admiral Evans is in danger of being lionized to death. He is sick and suffering, but notwithstanding his painful and enfeebled condition he is oppressed by hospitable and admiring attentions which must be wearisome and aggravating. Our hospitality would have a finer touch if it were less effusive and exacting in his case. We should not try to kill our distinguished guest with kindness. Proper appreciation of his eminent services and high rank can be shown without betraying careless disregard of his health and comfort.

An Object Lesson in Climate.

The reports from every quarter of the State indicate that an exceptional fruit crop will be harvested, however the cereal crop may come out. As to the latter, the earlier reports issued at the close of the long dry spell which prevailed during the greater part of March and the earlier part of April, turn out to have been too pessimistic. The late rains redeemed a vast area of the State devoted to grain and hay culture. There are sections of the State where these rains came too late. But the general average of the effect of the late rainstorm has been satisfactory and the loss to the agricultural interests of the State has been reduced to a minimum. This loss to the State as a whole will be compensated, from all appearances, by the greater fruit crop the citrus groves, the orchards and vineyards promise to yield.

With all the drawbacks occasioned by occasional droughts or long intervening periods of dry weather during the ordinary rainy season, California is incomparably blessed. For example, while the State was visited during the last week with refreshing showers, a vast area of the Eastern and Middle and Southern States of the continent was visited by a general snowstorm which undoubtedly did an immense amount of damage—immensely greater than that which California suffered through the drought—because of its unseasonable character. Even outdoor sports in several Eastern States had to be suspended owing to the intensely cold early May weather. It quite as surely affected unfavorably in those States the very interests in which California is at the present time most concerned, namely, the fruit industry, which has been so greatly benefited by the recent rain-storm. Indeed, the latter assured this State a fruit crop, the like of which its orchardists have not garnered for many years past.

Alameda county is one of the leading fruitgrowing counties in California. Its orchards and vineyards are in splendid shape owing to the timely rains and the absence of frosts, the season for which has been safely passed. And while there has been some shortage of the hay crop, the prosperity of the county, as a whole, is assured by the abundant fruit harvest which is practically guaranteed at the present time and the loss caused by the hay shortage is more than counterbalanced in advance.

The suffering of the agricultural and horticultural producers of the country from unseasonable weather is, of course, to be deplored. But the marked contrast between the conditions in this State and those existing in the East at the same season, emphasizes in a marked degree the superiority of our climate, which has been frequently commented on heretofore, even when the conditions here are exceptional, and should carry conviction home to the most skeptical.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

Facts are very often hidden things.
Power is apt to be painful as well as gainful.

The more we know the less we think we know.

Any old thing makes good until it has to give proof.

Time flies, but it is a fly that no one has ever been able to field.

Occasionally a man makes his mark and pays alimony ever afterward.

It would take all our time if we were to love our neighbors as they love themselves.

Were it not for deceit, how stripped would this world be of dear and precious things!

Self-conceit is a most excellent thing if kept for the exclusive use of emergency and necessity.

It is an easy matter to twist the truth, but when it springs back somebody is likely to be pretty badly upset.

Abstractly the answer to the oft-repeated query "What's the use in talking?" is to keep women from doing something worse.

PASTOR'S WIFE CALLS HUSBAND 'MEANEST MAN IN THE WORLD'

WOMAN TRIES TO RAID PARSONAGE, BUT FAILS

NEW YORK, May 7.—Mrs. Dudley Osterheld, wife of the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ozone Park, L. I., who carried on her two children last Thanksgiving day and went to the home of her father, George Schroeder, a real estate dealer, of 428 Franklin avenue, Brooklyn. Osterheld sought to have his wife put in an insane asylum, but she was frustrated by her husband.

Mrs. Osterheld left the minister last Thanksgiving day and went to the home of her father, George Schroeder, a real estate dealer, of 428 Franklin avenue, Brooklyn. Osterheld sought to have his wife put in an insane asylum, but she was frustrated by her husband.

On January 10 Mrs. Osterheld, accompanied by two women, carried off from the home of Charles Hicks, where her husband had gone to live, her two little girls in an automobile, and she escaped to New Jersey. Osterheld has since tried in vain to get the children.

Mrs. Osterheld, with her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Schroeder of 365 Grove street, Brooklyn, and another woman, went to the parsonage in a cab followed by a director, the third woman to look for a policeman. Mrs. Osterheld and her sister-in-law entered the parsonage with a key and began picking out furniture, telling the van driver to load it on his wagon. While he was doing this Mrs. Osterheld went to the room she formerly occupied and sorted out clothes she had made her go outside. Then he went back after Mrs. Schroeder and led her to the street.

The women made such a noise on the sidewalk that the lone policeman sent in a call for the Ozone Park reserves.

They came on a dead run, and had to argue for half an hour before Mrs. Osterheld and her friends would leave. Mrs. Osterheld did not even take the suit case back with her.

The minister made the van driver put all the furniture back in the parsonage.

"My husband is the meanest man in the world," said Mrs. Osterheld. "He never bought me but two shirt waists in his life. I am glad to rid of him, but I want my clothes. My next step against him will be some legal proceedings. I won't say what it will be."

Mrs. Osterheld gave him a frigid look and continued packing the suit case. Osterheld led her to the front door and then she hurried to the urchin. George made hay in that precious moment.

The beautifully gowned woman had been gone only five minutes when she reappeared. There was a sob in her throat as she said to the magistrate:

"I cannot send a dear little lad like that to jail. I will not prefer any charge against him, but if you will give him to me, I will adopt him. Let me have his child; let me take him away from these surroundings," and now there were tears in her eyes.

"George is a hard egg," remonstrated the magistrate, "and he always makes a sympathetic hit when he gets into trouble."

"Yes," interjected a detective, "he's a smooth-one; much too smooth for you. He wins them all just that way."

"Oh, you must be mistaken," said Mrs. Osterheld plaudingly. "He's just a dear, innocent little child. Please let me adopt him."

George's victim was crying. Every one about her pressed her to make a charge, but their efforts were of no avail.

"Well," said the disgusted magistrate, "I guess I'd better get rid of this youngster, or he may make a hit with me, and he committed George to the Juvenile Court for trial.

Mrs. Strickler went away bathed in tears.

Then she lingered just a moment to talk to the urchin. George made hay in that precious moment.

"Well," said the disgusted magistrate, "I guess I'd better get rid of this youngster, or he may make a hit with me, and he committed George to the Juvenile Court for trial.

Mrs. Strickler went away bathed in tears.

Then she lingered just a moment to talk to the urchin. George made hay in that precious moment.

The beautifully gowned woman had been gone only five minutes when she reappeared. There was a sob in her throat as she said to the magistrate:

"I cannot send a dear little lad like that to jail. I will not prefer any charge against him, but if you will give him to me, I will adopt him. Let me have his child; let me take him away from these surroundings," and now there were tears in her eyes.

"George is a hard egg," remonstrated the magistrate, "and he always makes a sympathetic hit when he gets into trouble."

"Yes," interjected a detective, "he's a smooth-one; much too smooth for you. He wins them all just that way."

"Oh, you must be mistaken," said Mrs. Osterheld plaudingly. "He's just a dear, innocent little child. Please let me adopt him."

George's victim was crying. Every one about her pressed her to make a charge, but their efforts were of no avail.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF AGONY

WILL YOU CONTINUE TO SUFFER FROM CATARRH IN THE FACE OF THIS TESTIMONY

"I suffered for fifteen years with catarrhal troubles so bad that I had to leave the sea. I could not lie down at night to sleep, or account of the constant catarrhal dropping. I went to two different hospitals for treatment, but without any lasting benefit. I was constantly raising yellow and green phlegm, and the trouble was so unbearable and nauseating that I was ashamed to go out in company. I have used only two bottles of Hydromel, and have been cured by the remedy. It has made full and complete recovery." CAPT. WILLIAMS.

Hydromel is a dry, healing, antiseptic sirup, extracted from the Eucalyptus groves of Australia. It is a pleasure to take Hydromel, because you do not take it into the stomach; you simply breathe in this germ-killing air, and relief is immediate and complete. Recovery comes in a few days. Hydromel outfit, including an inhaler that will last a lifetime, costs $1.00. HOTEL EMPLOYES CAUSE OF STRIKE

Desire to Hurry Work on Improvement Make Unions Angry; Hotel "In the Air."

CHICAGO, May 7.—Industrious and charitably inclined employees of the Wellington Hotel have succeeded in getting the management of that hotel into considerable trouble with the scores of labor unions and incidentally tying up work on the pending improvements indefinitely.

It all grew out of a natural desire of the hotel employees to assist in hurrying the work on the improvement. According to charges of the union officials these employees made so bold as to carry on the work of extending the work of plumbing, etc., on the building, notwithstanding the night before the regular workers had gone home. As the hotel workers were not members of these unions complaints immediately were made.

Yesterday 250 workers, representing practically all the trades at the Wellington Hotel, went on strike because they believed that those non-union men were encroaching upon their territory.

Meanwhile the hotel is, strictly speaking, "up in the air"—upset on jacks, where the union men have left it.

Escorted by Thousands Secretary of Navy Will Review Big Fleet

Big Battleship Fleet, "Dressed" for Company, at Their Anchorages, From Which the Thousands of Sailors and Marines Disembarked for Today's Big Parade in San Francisco.

TO ROW GIG RACE OFF ALAMEDA

Missouri and Maine Crews to Settle Championship of the Navy on Friday.

One of the most interesting events of the fleet's stay here will be the great two-mile gig race between the racing crews of the battleships Maine and Missouri, to decide the championship of the entire United States Navy, to be held at Alameda Friday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock.

Edwin Stearns, secretary of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, while with the fleet, entertainment committee on board the flagship Connecticut yesterday, arranged for this with Lieutenant D. A. Weaver, fleet athlete officer.

Lieutenant Weaver discussed the last gig race between the Maine and Missouri racing crews held at Monterey a few days ago.

Want Clear Victory.

At that time, the Missouri won by a very slight margin, but a slight accident, the breaking of an oar in the Maine gig, withheld the highest sport trophy from the Navy from the "Row Six" crew.

Although the Missouri won the race fairly and squarely, and the breaking of an oar in the rival Maine gig could not be made a technical bar to the championship, the Missouri Jackie's, being true sports, refused to consider it a race, and the Missouri, the Maine lads that they wanted to beat them in a race where everything ran smooth and where it would be muscle to muscle, skill to skill, man to man, oar to oar and crew to crew, from start to finish.

On the Estuary.

Secretary R. A. Russell, of the Alameda Chamber of Commerce, is arranging the final details, and the race Friday afternoon will be on the estuary, opposite the Alameda shore, west of the Park street bridge.

The course as it lies now is one and one-half miles straightaway, but Lieutenant Weaver says that the crews want it a mile and return, so that the race will finish at the starting line.

The Jackies are wild over the coming race, and thousands of dollars will change hands when the result is announced.

Practice Hard.

An example of the intense interest taken by the fleet is shown in the fact that yesterday afternoon, within 20 minutes after the anchor had splashed on the arrival of the warships, the racing crews of the Maine and Missouri gigs were out practicing on the bay.

Two-thirds on Shore.

Today, the regular quota of one-third of all the men will have shore leave, and in view of the passion Jack has for racing, it is stated on good authority that Admiral Evans will probably grant shore-leave to another third of the sailors, so that two-thirds of all the sailors in the fleet will watch the race, while the other third will remain disconsolately behind on board.

There will be some consolation for the disappointed Jackies, however. Their mates will wag the progress of the race, so that the tars on board will be able to follow it closely.

METCALF REVIEWS FLEET TOMORROW

Brilliant Spectacle Afforded by Official Inspection

Secretary Metcalf's review of the combined fleets will be the great event tomorrow. It will be a brilliant and imposing spectacle. The war vessels will remain at anchor off Goat Island, and marines in dress uniform will be mustered on the decks to salute the Yorktown as she passes with Secretary Metcalf.

The Secretary's flagship Yorktown, flying the Secretary's flag, bearing four white stars and an anchor on a field of blue, will leave anchorage just south of the Oakland mole at 10 o'clock, steam between columns one and two, pass around the southern end of columns two and three, and then proceed north between columns three and four, thus bringing every vessel of the fleet directly under the secretary's inspection. The Yorktown will then come to anchor at the head of the columns between columns two and three.

Each Vessel Salutes.

The review will occupy more than an hour. A salute of nineteen guns will be given by each vessel as it is in view of the people of that State.

Secretary Metcalf will hold a reception aboard the Yorktown immediately after the review, when the commanding officers and flag officers of the fleet will pay their respects to him. The secretary will be visited by the mayors of surrounding cities, and by other prominent men, it is his opinion that Curtin was mentally unbalanced.

WILL MAKE SPECIAL TRIP TO WITNESS THE REVIEW

Reception Committee Will Be on Key Route

The Key Route boat San Jose will leave the Key Route pier promptly at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow morning to witness the review of the fleet. No special trains will be run, but all persons having tickets must leave on the Key Route trains not later than 9 o'clock.

The boat will return to the pier at about 12 o'clock.

All members of the fleet committee must call for their tickets for distribution at any time today after 9 o'clock.

MINOR ACCIDENTS DURING PARADE

Police and Emergency Hospital Arrangements Proved to Be Efficient in Every Way.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE) SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The police and emergency hospital arrangements for handling the crowds who gathered along the line of march to witness the great parade were complete in their detail, but comparatively few accidents were reported and no one was seriously injured.

Young Girl Faints.

Eliza Pow, a 14-year-old girl, who lives at 138 Lower Terrace, fainted at Van Ness and Market and was revived at the Central Emergency Hospital. While the ambulance was endeavoring to bring her to the hospital, the crowd at Franklin and Market streets several women were trampled underfoot in the excitement of dodging the horses, but no one was seriously enough injured to be taken to the hospital.

Hit by a Car.

Lorenza Vannuc, a mosaics worker at Washington, D. C., is the guest of Secretary Victor H. Metcalf at the St. Marks Hotel.

They ask that every person in Oakland bring or send as many flowers of all kinds as possible to Adams Point Saturday morning, between 7 and 10 o'clock.

SAYS CURTIN WAS CRAZY

R. A. McCarthy Testifies He Told Titus' Slayer "Things About his Wife."

Richard A. McCarthy, formerly an employee in James Corley's saloon, 328 San Pablo avenue, occupied the stand this morning in the trial of Robert E. Curtin, before a jury in Superior Judge Ellsworth's court.

Curtin is charged with murdering John A. Titus.

McCarthy was a witness for the defense and this morning he was put through a grilling cross-examination by Assistant District Attorney Hynes, who is conducting the prosecution.

On direct examination, McCarthy testified that he had been in Curtin's room and declared that the defendant had acted in a strange manner and he gave it as his opinion that Curtin was mentally unbalanced.

Warned by Telephone.

This morning McCarthy often spoke of being the friend of many married women. He said at one time he was in the company of a Mrs. Tyer, when they met Mrs. Curtin and Titus. He stated that the entire party "went to feed their faces."

McCarthy declared that at another time fellow employees of his in Corley's saloon had telephoned to him at the Antler restaurant and told him that "there was a guy in the saloon, looking for him with a big gettling gun." The witness stated that he told his informant to tell the man, who was Curtin, "to come and see him at the restaurant and he would entertain him."

McCarthy said that he did not think much of the "phone stuff" and wanted to see the man with the gun.

He says he met Curtin and went to the latter's room and told him some things about Mrs. Curtin and "put him wise."

It is expected that the Curtin trial will not be concluded before the end of next week, or the early part of the following week.

KEY ROUTE WILL REFUND MONEY

Unused Tickets Will Be Re-deemed if Presented Within

Next Ten Days.

In reference to the congested travel on the Key Route yesterday while the boats were taken to and from Goat Island, an official of the road stated today that many fares were not collected from passengers not only from Oakland and San Francisco, but Goat Island as well, because the managers of the road had given instructions to the employees to do everything

All members of the fleet will be transported to the center of Oakland on both Key Route and Southern Pacific trains free of expense, as arrangements have been made by the committee with these railroads to transport the men, the uniform taking the place of a ticket.

On Sunday May 14, in the afternoon, among the other events will be a 400-yard race to determine the fleet championship, and also a baseball game between teams from the Atlantic and Pacific fleets for the championship.

BURGLARS LOOT SEVERAL HOMES

Thieves Busy While Residents Watch Arrival of Atlantic Fleet.

Pickpockets and burglars were busy in this city yesterday while the residents were out viewing the coming of the fleet, a quantity of articles and coin being reported as stolen this morning to the police.

Mrs. Antone Lutz of 1775 Atlantic street reports that thieves broke into her home and after breaking the locks on two trunks stole a quantity of small articles and some jewelry. When Philip Teehan of 403 Seventh street returned from San Francisco last evening he found that all of his personal effects, consisting of clothing, sheet, shirts, pension papers, money, exchange papers and other articles, had been stolen from his room.

Other Places.

M. Damerol of 1228 Twentieth avenue, J. H. Gallop of the Hotel Merritt, B. Bantacue of 1117 Jefferson street, R. Story of 307 Ninth avenue and W. S. Lautenbacher of 602 East Twentieth street were the victims of pickpockets.

Damerol was robbed of his gold and watch and lockets. Gallop lost his purse containing $25 in gold and silver. Story's pocket was picked of a purse containing twenty cents and a time check on the city of Oakland for $67, while Lautenbacher was robbed of a purse containing gold and silver coin to the amount of $6.

SHOOTS HER HUSBAND

Wife, After Naval Parade in San Francisco, Fires Two Shots at Cook in Fairmont Hotel.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The guests of the Fairmont Hotel strolling in the corridor immediately after the parade today were startled by hearing shots in quick succession, apparently from the window.

Clerks, bellboys and other employees rushed toward the direction of the sound, which proved to have come from the servants' dining hall, where Leon Colome, second cook, was lying on the floor in a pool of blood.

It developed that Colome had been called to the dining room by his wife, Genevieve Colome who stated that she wished to see him and as soon as her husband appeared the woman drew a pistol and deliberately shot him twice, one bullet hitting him in the abdomen, the other penetrating the neck.

He was taken in a sinking condition to the central emergency hospital, where Dr. Nathan said there was little hope for his recovery.

Colome says that his wife is insane on the subject of religion.

She is now up in delirium in the city prison, pending the results of her husband's injuries.

had missed their automobile on several occasions and were disappointed, annoyed, and did not see today's parade.

Wanted to See Parade.

Ach requested that no session be held tonight because he wanted to enjoy the festivities. He also suggested that the jurors might be permitted to see the spectacle which the animated city would present.

The juror who said he wanted to work all night objected to this, saying the jurors were divided upon many things and that as a result they were nailed up in a room with a sheriff on guard.

That was why he wanted to work all night in order to get back home.

Judge Dooling said the night session commencing tonight would be held every night until the case came to a close.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Notwithstanding that all business was suspended in this city today in true California spirit, in honor of the naval defenders of the nation, as represented by the Atlantic and Pacific fleets, there was a session of the Superior Court this morning for the purpose of continuing the hearing of the charge of bribery against Abraham Ruef in the Parkside franchise matter.

Tread of Marching Hosts.

Without could be heard the measured tread of the marching platoons of jacks and marines on Market street, but that was in the intervals when there was a cessation of martial music, and the lusty cheers of the populace which told how glad the metropolis of the Pacific was to have the brave and comely fighters of the sea as their guests.

When the hour of 10 o'clock arrived, to which time the court had adjourned, there were five people in the lobby of the court.

One of these said that he considered it a shame that court should be held on a day on which it was apparent the sentiment of the people showed that public as well as private business of all kinds should be suspended for the purpose of celebrating an event the importance of which had never been equalled in the history of the city. He further stated that it was all the more to be regretted because of the delays and continuances almost without number, which had taken place since the alleged graft prosecution began, nearly two years ago.

The number of people in the lobby referred to was not increased during the morning session.

Waited for Heneey.

The defendant, Ruef, and his counsel, A. H. Chapman and Murphy were on hand even before the hour set for the proceedings. Their punctuality, however, was rewarded by a wait of twenty minutes for the arrival of Assistant District Attorney Heneey.

When that important event was announced Judge Dooling emerged from his chambers and ascended the bench.

Then Ach continued his cross-examination of Umbsen, which was discontinued at the close of the session of court last night at 11 o'clock.

Witness Was Guessing.

The witness said he could not tell how many days before the 23d of May Ruef had spoken to him about his money. Ach then marvelled at the witness' lack of memory when the latter recalled other dates about the same time. Finally Ach read from Umbsen's testimony yesterday showing he had had the conversation referred to about a week before the payment of the money. The attorney asked him if he was guessing when he so testified and the witness admitted he had simply been guessing.

Ach then sought to get Umbsen to fix another date in the same transaction, and got him to a limit that his family, after the big fire of 1906, had returned to this city on the 1st of June of that year.

"Can you tell me?" asked Ach, "how long after the return of your family from across the bay you again met Ruef?" "It was possibly four, five or six weeks."

The lack of information on the part of the witness caused Judge Dooling to scrutinize the features of Umbsen and at length the court asked:

Does Some More Guessing.

"Are you guessing now, or do you know it?"

Umbsen said he was guessing.

"Why do you?" inquired the judge. "Seek to give a date when you don't know it?"

Ach interferred to modify the severity

CLASS GRADUATING FROM PROVIDENCE HOSPITAL SCHOOL TO HOLD EXERCISES

To Serve Naval Visitors With Luncheon on Bridge Over Tidal Canal.

ALAMEDA, May 7.—Several launch loads of pretty girls will strew flowers over the racing course on the tidal canal and the estuary to be used by the rowing crews from the fleet tomorrow afternoon in the cash prize regatta that is expected to attract a great multitude of those who are fond of water sports. The novel floral feature of the regatta was originated by Mrs. Zora Green Radcliffe. Flowers for presentation to the naval visitors are to be collected and distributed tomorrow under the direction of Nelson C. Hawks, president of the Alameda Improvement Club.

It developed that Colome had been called to the dining room by his wife, Genevieve Colome who stated that she wished to see him and as soon as her husband appeared the woman drew a pistol and deliberately shot him twice, one bullet hitting him in the abdomen, the other penetrating the neck. He was taken in a sinking condition to the central emergency hospital, where Dr. Nathan said there was little hope for his recovery.

of the court's rebuke, and then lead the witness to tell about a meeting between the latter, Green, and some other promoters of the Parkside Realty Company at the witness' home, when the question of the changing of the supposed route of the railroad, included in the franchise, was discussed.

The witness' memory, however, was a blank as to the details of the discussion which took place.

"Did you ever say to any person under any circumstance that you had paid Ruef in fifteen $100 bills?" asked Ach. "I don't remember."

Reference was then made to the $20,000 intended as the fee of Ruef, which Umbsen testified yesterday he had placed in his safe before going to Honolulu, from which place he returned seven days after.

"Did it not occur to you?" said Ach. "That you had left that money unidentified in your safe after your return?" "No, the safe was intact."

Asked About Safe.

"You arrived here April 25, and you say you know the safe was intact—do you know how the fire burned in your section of the city before the people could get to their safety?" "I don't remember."

"But your place was on Montgomery street?" "Yes, between Market and Sutter streets."

"Don't you know that your place was completely burned down and that it was all covered by debris?" "Yes."

"And you recollect that the 25th of April was only seven days after the fire?" "Yes."

"Do you know what day you burned up?" "No."

"Do you know that any man told you your safe was intact?" "Yes; my brother-in-law, Mr. Henderson, and my brother."

"Where is your brother?" "In Europe." Umbsen then said he had taken the Ruef money out of the safe and had given it to Henderson to deposit after telling him all about the money was intended to be paid to Ruef.

"Who deposited that money?" asked Ach. "Mr. Henderson."

"Where?" "In the Union Trust Company."

To whose credit?" "My brother."

"Harry P. Umbsen?" "Yes."

"How was that money taken out of the safe?" "It was checked out."

"By whom?" "My brother."

"Harry P. Umbsen?" "Yes."

Wants Check Produced.

"Now, search and find and bring to court the bank book of your brother Harry P. Umbsen, showing dealings with the Union Trust Company, and search and find the check of your brother Harry P. Umbsen, showing the deposit of that amount and of the checking out of the same?" If you cannot find these, go please, to the books of the Union Trust Company and bring to me showing the records touching the deposit in that bank between the 17th of March and the 22nd of May 1906, showing a deposit of $30,000—as I understand you have your brother's power of attorney."

Umbsen said he would do as desired.

MIDDLEWEIGHTS EASE UP IN THEIR TRAINING

Ketchell and Sullivan Are Ready for Battle || Angels and Oakland Play Twelve-Inning Tie

JACK AND STANLEY WILL END TRAINING TODAY

Fighters Select Sullivan as Probable Victor--Frankie Neil Again Comes in Second Best.

BY EDDIE SMITH.

TO DAY will be the last day of training for the contestants in next Saturday's battle of thirty-five rounds. The easing off in the training for this battle has been made easy by the fact that both men have reached the weight and are fit and ready for the timekeeper to start them on their long journey at a moment's notice. From now to the day of the contest all that will be done will be enough to keep the condition that has already been worked up to

With most fighters and especially with those who have been fighting for a few years the day for the easing off in the training is a gala one and looked forward to with as much relish as a boy awaiting the serving of strawberries shortcake that he has seen but not tasted.

With Sullivan and Ketchell however this does not seem to be the rule. Sullivan is a great believer in the work that a fighter does in the gymnasium and even during the time that he is not training for a contest the place to find him is at some gymnasium warming up and keeping in fair condition. For a fighter who has been in the game as long as Sullivan he gets more amusement out of his work and likes it better than any fighter the writer can call to mind.

With Ketchell it is only natural that he would like to go through his work with such a constitution and extra amount of athletic energy as he is working under at all times any one would be glad to get into the gymnasium and work some of it off. Ketchell has shown great work during this stage of training and his friends and admirers are claiming all sorts of improvement in his boxing some say that he hits straighter, and others say that he is faster, but the more conservative fan says that he is not faster or he does not hit straighter but that he has now had more experience with fast company and his success has brought him confidence that can not be shaken off very easily.

Ketchell Principal.

In the coming contest Ketchell is of course the principal feature and the greatest amount of fight talk is regarding his chances and what his future will bring if he is successful in the coming battle. With Sullivan he has had his chance at all the best of the present day fighters including Tommy Burns and he has failed to show in that would lead to his chances for the heavy-weight championship being taken seriously besides this he is too light and there is small possibility of his increasing his weight on that he has been so long in the game.

With Ketchell there is no telling where he will stop not so very long ago the writer met him for the first time in Marysville where he was blindfolded to fight a colored fighter named Benny Hart at that time Ketchell made 145 pounds without much effort a few months later we again met when he was to box Joe Thomas at 150 pounds four hours before the contest this time he was just at the weight.

Since that time Ketchell has been getting bigger and stronger until today he is compelled to work fairly hard to make 168 pounds the required weight for Saturday's battle. With a fellow who is growing like Ketchell is and who is improving so fast there is no telling where he may stop and it may be that he will be a candidate for the heavy-weight championship in a very short time if Ketchell has such an unlimited confidence in himself that he would enter the ring Saturday with Tommy Burns just as confident of victory as he is with Sullivan.

The Valley Brews scored their fifth consecutive victory last Sunday by journeying to Benicia and defeating the home team known as the Monarchs by a score of 8 to 4.

The features of the game were the fine fielding of Shortstop Collins and the hitting and catching of W. Knapp for the victorious nine while special mention must be given to the clever playing of the Monarchs' third baseman.

The Valley Brews will cross bats with W. P. Maxwell's baseball team on St. Mary's Diamond Sunday afternoon May 10 the game to be called at 1 o'clock p.m.

As both teams are old rivals an exciting game is expected.

J. Davis and W. Knapp will be the stars for the Valley Brews.

BATTLESHIP BASEBALL NINE WOULD LIKE TO ARRANGE GAME

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The members of the baseball team of the marine guards of the U. S. S. New Jersey are after games on the diamond and would like to play some of the crack amateur teams of the trans-Pacific cities.

Teams wishing games can arrange by addressing Timothy Farley, assistant manager, U. S. S. New Jersey baseball team, care of the postmaster, San Francisco.

HOGAN IS MISTAKEN FOR FLEET AND IS DELAYED

Crowd at Key Route Inn Gets a Peek at Happy's Patriotic Shoe Strings and Surround Him.

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Because a crowd of cage-peasants mistook Hogan's pedal extremities for the battleship Connecticut and Missouri at the Key Route Inn this sterling athlete was unable to make his appearance at the ball park in San Francisco yesterday and the heat Oakland could do with Los Angeles was to split a twelve inning game 5 to 5 with the champs.

The fighters will do their last sparring today, and even this will be of a very light character and tomorrow the work will almost entirely be suspended. Promoter Coffroth and his almost always sober press agent have announced that the sale of seats has been large, and that a record house will be in attendance.

McFarland and Nelson.

Word comes that Packey McFarland, acting as his own manager has agreed to terms for a contest with Battling Nelson at Milwaukee. The battle will be of ten rounds duration and the fighters are to receive 60 per cent of the gross gate receipts.

McFarland and Nelson have been wanting a chance to get at one another for some time, but for some reason there has always been a hitch to any agreement that they have tried to reach. McFarland is smart in picking a place where ten rounds is the limit placed on the contests. Packey is still a young fellow and while the writer has great admiration for his style and ability it must always be remembered that he is a young fellow and careful matchmakers like the selection of a ten-round battle for a try at the Dane will help greatly to bring him up to the standard that the people expect before they will admit that he has a chance with Joe Gans.

If this contest is made it will appear as if Gans has allowed the Battler to slip away without getting his name to a set of articles. The new fight trial and Jimmy Croftor war of promoters is so far reaching, however, that this is probably the reason for the Dane and champion not being re-matched in San Francisco or Colma in the near future.

Neil Again Loses.

Frankie Neil the one-time sturdy little fighter from Emeryville was again decisively beaten at Milwaukee in a ten round contest with Ad. Wolf. Neil lost night and received such a beating that it necessitated the aid of a physician to help him from the ring. Neil was battered and banged about in every round and it was only through his undying courage that he was all in and the fact is that his showing with Attell should have convinced any one with an ounce of brains that he was all in. The little fellow like all other fighters however was naturally of a different opinion but when his father again allowed him to enter the ring after the Attell mistake of allowing him to start when he was anything but right he displayed even worse judgment than he did when he boasted everyone he roared in his one-issue paper.

The temperance people anticipated this decision, but they will press the fight to have the question placed before the people.

FINED $100 FOR SELLING LIQUOR IN COLLEGE TOWN

Drivers Must Not Take Orders on Their Routes.

BERKELEY, May 7.—Ed Siebold, a driver for the Gardner Mitchell Grocery Company of Oakland, pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor in violation of the town's prohibition ordinance in the police court this morning and was fined $100, which he promptly paid. Siebold was arrested on the complaint of Court Hallie Charles Becker some days ago. Becker says Siebold delivered liquor as was ordered directly from his wagon to all customers. Under the town ordinance the Oakland grocery houses have found it convenient to have liquor orders telephoned or sent by post card instead of given to drivers or solicitors, the courts hold that this shift avoids the charge of making an actual sale within the town limits.

BY T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

"What fools we mortals be!" An example of the worth of this axiom, there is a large elephantine person in our midst, named John Middleksy, who poses as the greatest of all Indian wrestlers.

What we know of Indian wrestlers would not fill a Carnegie library, but the only one of this ilk, whom we have ever heard of doing any real wrestling outside of throwing the "bul" is War Eagle.

Still John Middleksy is in our midst, a human ton of beef, posing as the greatest of Indian wrestlers.

John looks like a man who could throw a good porterhouse beef to the spot in his anatomy where it would do the most good.

But as wrestler we cannot see John, nay, not no. Not even with the aid of a Lick telescope.

Let John stick to throwing the "bul."

That's an easy game, and even a team in the Coast League has picked smaller man than Middleksy could do up three better men than these this season we haven't spotted them as yet.

Cockey O'Brien says that so long as this with safety. If John thinks he's the greatest thrower of the "bul" in existence, let him do himself to the Willis Gardens in San Francisco and he will even get lessons in a game that is older than Adam.

In our observations of the Oakland baseball club, we have picked out three of the new men who stand out to us like beacon lights. They are Slattery, Deller and Cooke. This is about at least a trio of ball tossers as any team has picked up in this league this season. Slattery catches with becoming grace, and he can whack the ball with unusual force. Cooke, in left field, has made some catches that has caused us to marvel, and we have seen great catches made in great games on many great ball fields. Deller has shown himself a consummate workman. If any of these Angels don't look as strong as they did last year, and we can't understand how the Communists fail to win every game from them. The Los Angeles spirit, the one that won the pennant for Berry's men last year, seems to have been lost, still, the Greys managing to more than show up the Oaklanders. Van Haltron's boys ought to be able to beat the bitumen out of that bunch of Merry Widows, but such is not the case.

After slamming the ball for three bases a young player up in New England dropped dead. Probably the fear of a similar unwanted fate deters some of the Oakland players from making triples. In such a case, however, we fear the spectators would be even in greater danger.

Cap Felger remarked yesterday that Doctor Dippy is offering a handsome reward to anyone keen enough of sight to find any fight promoter who is willing to put up $50,000 to inveigle Burns into the ring with Johnson.

Cygairlewley, the Australian wrestler, is coming to America. It's a cinch he will buffalize the mere American wrestler, for we don't even know of anyone who would be willing to take a chance on wrestling even with the name.

Young Corbett has quit fighting, but reports from the Metropolis in New York still say that he is able to do business with a couple of rounds of drinks.

Nature may not like a monopoly, but it certainly looks as though Greater New York has grabbed all the swell firstbasemen. The Americans have Chase, while Tenny is with the Giants, and Jordan is covering first base in a manner that would not suggest that he is of invalid tendencies, for the Brooklyn team.

If one is to judge from the amount of money that those American athletes expect to squander on their trip to England, he might come to the conclusion that they expect to travel first-class.

Jim Barry seems to be of the kind that likes to hang around where angels fear to tread. He has asked for a return match with Sam Langford.

ABERDEEN, May 7.—Aberdeen and Butte played a twenty-inning game here yesterday, and all that stopped the contest at this period was that darkness interfered and made it impossible to continue further. Calif and Spokane worked for Aberdeen. Willie J. Thomas and Shea were in the points for Butte.

Rainy Day Club Secretary Expresses Opinion That Imported Article Is To Be Preferred.

NEW YORK May 7—The Rainy Day Club yesterday learned something about American mothers, and American babies as well, that it did not know before. It held its last meeting of the season without Phillip, secretary of the New York Milk Committee of the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor which is to open seven new infant milk depots on June 15, was one of the speakers. He gave the members statistics that made them open their eyes even though they learned that the American mother was not much good and the imported article was the only one worth considering.

The dead are Eva Berg, 33 years old; Samuel Bach, 10 years of age; Hattie Kopelman, 24 years old; unidentified man.

The fire was first seen by a policeman when the flames were shooting from windows in the lower part of the house. His call for help brought several other officers to his aid, and in a moment nearly everyone in the house had been aroused and the fire escapee were choked with frightened tenants. The policemen carried several children to the ground before the firemen arrived. By that time the fire escapee were so packed with men, women and children that no one could get down.

Firemen Save 100
While persons in the building who had been unable to get out because all the windows leading to the fire escapee were crowded struggled for exit on one side the firemen on extension ladders labored on the other. One by one women and children were dragged from the over-crowded platforms by the firemen and carried down the extension ladders to the street and safety. More than a hundred persons were taken from the fire escapee in this way.

In the meantime those who had been forced to remain in the blazing house had been having a serious time. Some of them finding escape by windows and stairs which had been blocked sought to get out on the roof. Not one of them succeeded in reaching the roof, however, in the flames had swept up the stairways and spread all through the upper part of the building.

It was while attempting to reach the upper of the house that little Hattie Kopelman lost her life and her mother had a very narrow escape from death.

Mrs. Kopelman had gone out on the roof intending to make her way to the roof as the flames were sweeping around the lower part of the front building. She had her child in her arms when she stepped off the high platform to fall and as she struck the side of the platform Hattie fell from her arms and fell through the opening in the platform to the platform on the floor below which was red hot. There the child was burned to death before anyone could reach her.

Mrs. Kopelman rolled across the opening but saved herself from falling through Mrs. Eva Berg and the Bach boy were burned to death in their rooms apparently having been overcome by smoke while asleep.

Old Man Gives Son of Benefactor $25

NEW YORK May 7—William Davis of Jersey City received a call the other day from an old man who introduced himself as James O'Leary of Chicago. He said that when he came to this country from Ireland fifty years ago his father, now dead, had loaned him $25 which he had never repaid. The old man, who Mr. O'Leary succeeded in locating after a long search, William Davis at first refused to accept the $25 but when he could spare the money O'Leary said he served in the civil war after which he drifted about the west with varying fortune. In 1870 when he went to Chicago and with $20 he had opened a fruit stand. From that time he prospered and he is now comparatively wealthy. Recently he said his uncle had picked him for not repaying the loan and he came to Jersey City to look for Mr. Davis only to learn that Mr. Davis was dead but had left his son, Mr. O'Leary, to care for him after a long search.
